

JANE ADDAMS MEMORIAL TOLLWAY REBUILDING AND WIDENING PROJECT

Transit on I-90

As part of the $2.5 billion Jane Addams Memorial Tollway (I-90) Rebuilding and Widening Project, the Illinois Tollway is providing $240 million to integrate transit in the corridor today in partnership with Pace, as well as future transit expansion plans. This is the first time in the agency's history that we are accommodating transit options along one of our roadways.

ACCOMMODATES TRANSIT TODAY

The new I-90 will:

- Feature wider shoulders to provide dedicated and reliable transit service, including bus on shoulder when needed

PROVIDES OPTIONS FOR THE FUTURE

- Flexible design and technology to support bus-only lanes in the future

FEATURES NEW AND EXPANDED PACE BUS SERVICE IN 2016

Existing Pace services currently provide 3,200 rides along I-90 per day. New bus routes and expanded service on existing routes are expected to increase ridership:

- New Pace routes 603 (Elgin Transit Center to Rosemont), 604 (Wheeling - Schaumburg), 605 (Elgin - Rosemont), 607 (Elgin - Rosemont) and 608 (Roselle Metra - Schaumburg)
- Expands existing Pace route 600 (Rosemont - Schaumburg)
- New service connecting the Barrington Road area and parts of Schaumburg

CREATES NEW PACE PARK-N-RIDE OPTIONS

I-90 will feature the first Park-n-Ride facilities at transit stations constructed on the Tollway system:

- Provides three new Park-n-Ride facilities at: Randall Road, Illinois Route 25 and Barrington Road, as well as improved transit-only access for the Rosemont Transportation Center
- These facilities will accommodate as many as 550 vehicles for Park-n-Ride users, as well as local transit connections

EXPANDS ACCESS TO EMPLOYMENT, BUSINESS AND RETAIL CENTERS

Currently, the I-90 corridor generates 13 percent of the region's daily work trips. The new I-90 will provide access to:

- Major Corporations - Motorola, AT&T, Siemens, Sears Holding Corporation, IBM, Sunstar Americas
- Business Parks and Industrial Centers - Prairie Stone Business Park, O'Hare and Rosemont, Elk Grove Business Park, Fisher Corporate Center
- Retail and Entertainment Venues - Allstate Arena, Rosemont Theatre, mb Financial Park, Woodfield Mall, Sears Center Arena
- Hospitals and Higher Education - Sherman Hospital, St. Alexius Medical Center, Elgin Community College
